

CANTERBURY BOTANICAL SOCIETY

Aims of the Society

'To promote interest in the study of botany especially that of New Zealand and in particular the native flora of Canterbury'

Code of Conduct for the Conservation of Wild Plants

It is hoped that all members will adhere to this simple code:

- 1 Do not completely uproot whole plants, or remove large pieces of plants of uncommon species.
- 2 If you wish to cultivate native plants, start with seeds or cuttings only.
- 3 Do not light fires in the open.
- 4 Do not take domestic pets.
- 5 Do not carry firearms.

Officers of the Society 1988 - 1989

President: Neil O'Brien, 94 Maidstone Road, Christchurch 4.

Hon. Secretary: Daphne Banks, 38 Mersey Street, Christchurch 1.

Hon. Treasurer: Edith Shaw, 141 Clarence Street, Christchurch 1.

Subscriptions: Full membership $8.00.
Family membership $10.50
Associate membership $5.00

Canterbury Botanical Society Journal

Editor: David Norton, School of Forestry, University of Canterbury, Private Bag, Christchurch.

Members of the Society and others are invited to contribute articles or notes, illustrated with photographs or drawings where appropriate, to the Editor for publication. The Editor would prefer to receive any contributions early in the new year but no later than 30 April.

Published by the Canterbury Botanical Society (N.Z.) Inc., P.O. Box 8212, Christchurch, New Zealand.

Printed by the University of Canterbury Press, Ilam.