Corrections

A number of the contributors to Canterbury Botanical Society Journal Issue 49 (2018) would have consulted Dr AD (Andy) Thomson's publications on the life and work of Leonard Cockayne to inspire and inform their articles. We apologise for the occasions when I [JC] might have omitted to include their acknowledgement of Andy's work.

We are grateful to Dr Warwick Harris for pointing out that rather than DSIR Botany Division being reborn as part of Landcare Research, Botany Division was largely absorbed into Landcare Research. We are also grateful to Warwick for reminding us to search the relevant DSIR Botany Division Triennial Reports for additional works authored by Andy Thomson. These and other papers, reports and articles missed from the bibliography published in Issue 49 of the Journal are listed below.
